DETAILED ACTION

1. Entry of the substitute specification (and abstract) of 5 May 2006 is approved.
2. The word "leather" in this office action is considered to be limited to actual leather and not include synthetic leather. This interpretation is consistent with paragraph 5 of the instant specification.
3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).
5. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bauer et al. in U.S. Patent No. 6,808,197 in view of Bauer in U.S. Patent No. 5,611,564. Bauer et al. discloses as shown in figure 11 scoring leather that has been previously treated with lacquer (see column 8, lines 42-45) by perforations (see abstract). Bauer (564)

(564) teaches the details of the lacquer treatment to a strip area (24A; see column 4, lines 43-53). It would have been obvious to adapt Bauer et al. in view of Bauer to provide this to fix or harden the leather prior to laser treatment.

6. Claim 29 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bauer et al. in U.S. Patent No. 6,808,197 in view of Bauer in U.S. Patent No. 5,611,564 as applied to claim 14 above, and further in view of Hill in U.S. Patent No. 5,743,408. Hill teaches shrinking the leather prior to heat treatment to prevent further shrinking of the leather and decreasing its aesthetic value (see column 4, lines 48-52). It would have been obvious to adapt Bauer et al.(197) in view of Bauer (564) and Hill to provide this to prevent further shrinking during the laser treatment process.

7. Claims 15-28 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Riha et al. in U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2004/0164531 uses a laser beam to weaken the tear strength of leather without cutting or engraving (see paragraphs 96 and 97). Connett in U.S. Patent No. 3,930,921 discloses finishing leather.
